

The 3D Human Experience

The majority of the human experience revolves around the unseen.
Understand the unseen, understand the human experience

The Ethereal:

The ethereal component being the higher aspects of the human experience which is consciousness, plus access to the higher dimensions of consciousness gained through the releasing of DMT into the body whether through the body's natural release or the taking of DMT from external sources

The Biological:

The biological component being the organic human body and all the functions and elements that goes into making the body work and to keeping it functioning at an optimum level

The Electromagnetical:

The electromagnetical component being the electrical energy, magnetic fields, frequencies and vibrations that are part of the bodies functions plus the Electric Universe, Morphic Fields and Morphic Resonance that surround and interact with the body

The brain is a link for it is both a transmitter and receiver of information and the body is like a tuning fork that gives off a resonance
