

Types of People in Sport

Learners & Improvers put the team above themselves
Needy People & Dickheads put themselves above the team

Needy People

People who constantly look for negative attention, are selfish, put themselves above the team, indulge in disruptive behaviours and don't learn and improve

Dickheads

Are needy people who have ramped it up

Learners & Improvers

People who work for the team, cooperate and continually look to learn about and improve their game and skill and understanding of the sport they play

Needy People & Dickheads require lots of rules and regulations to keep them on task, Learners & Improvers don't
